Turnover

- U10 has confirmed an excellent level of activity in 2021 with very fast-paced growth.
- In Europe, the new integrated business model is proving to be more effective than ever. In addition to performance levels in 2021, business volume is significantly higher than the volume in 2019 before COVID.
- Exports from the Asian office remain more subdued, affected by the suspension of international trade shows.

News and outlook

- Considering the performance achieved during the year, EBITDA and net income for 2021 will greatly exceed the results recorded over the past three years.
- U10 is gaining market share and is already anticipating an increase in turnover for 2022.

U10 is specialised in B to B trade in the interior decorating sector
